DHY 308
Lightweight Ground Laser Target Designator

For Special Forces, FAC, JTAC with built-in See Spot

- Combat proven DHY-307 evolution
- Lightweight system
- NATO and NON-NATO laser guided weapons
- Athermal diode pumped laser
- No warm-up
- Reduce electrical consumption
- Stationary or moving targets
- Remote control unit
- Multiple options and customization

www.cilas.com
Mastering surgical strike

Technical data

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Specification</th>
<th>Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mass</td>
<td>&lt; 4.5 kg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Output Energy</td>
<td>&gt; 80 mJ</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Operating Temperature</td>
<td>-33°C to +50°C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Designation Performance</td>
<td>Up to 10km</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>STANAG 3733 requirements</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russian codes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Customized Codes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ranging</td>
<td>Up to 20km</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Built-in Laser spot camera (On option)</td>
<td>Field of view: 2.4°</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Main modules

- Designation/rangefinding unit
- Pan & tilt head
- Tripod
- Battery
- Handheld UMPC (Ultra Mobile Portable PC)

Accessories

- Ask for CILAS wide portfolio

---

For more information, please contact us: info.defence@cilas.com

---

The descriptions and technical characteristics mentioned on this data sheet are not contractual and may change without prior notice.